Sec. 9. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said president and managers shall keep, or cause to be kept, plain and just accounts of all receipts and payments of monies still due to, from, or on part of the said company, and shall submit the same, at least once in every year, to a general meeting of the stockholders; and whenever it shall appear to the said president, managers and company, at any such general meeting, or at any special meeting convened for that purpose, according to the provisions of this act, or the by-laws of the company, and that the proposed bridge cannot be completed without extending the number of shares, the same shall be extended under the direction of such meeting, so far as may be necessary to complete the proposed bridge, which additional shares shall be sold and regulated in all respects, and be attended with the same rights and privileges as the original shares are herein or by the by-laws, rules and orders of the company directed to be.

Sec. 10. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That when a good and complete bridge, under the authority of this act, shall be erected over the river Monongahela, opposite Pittsburgh, in the county of Allegheny, as aforesaid, the property of the same shall be vested in the said incorporated company, their successors and assigns, during and unto the end of forty years, to commence from the time the said bridge is completed; and the said company, their sucesssors and assigns, are hereby empowered to erect gates and demand and receive tolls, as follows, to wit:—For every foot passenger, two cents; for every carriage of whatever description, used for the purpose of trade or agriculture, having four wheels and drawn by six horses, thirty-seven and an half cents; for every such carriage having four wheels and drawn by five horses, thirty one cents; for every such carriage having four wheels and drawn by four horses, twenty-five cents; for every such carriage having four wheels and drawn by three horses, twenty cents; for every such carriage having four wheels and drawn by two horses, eighteen cents; for every such carriage having four wheels and drawn by one horse, sixteen cents; for every carriage, of whatever description, used for the purpose of personal accommodation or pleasure, having four wheels and drawn by four horses, thirty-seven and an half cents; for every such carriage having four wheels and drawn by two horses, twenty-five cents; for every such carriage having four wheels and drawn by one horse, eighteen cents; for every carriage, of whatever description, used for the purpose of trade or agriculture, having two wheels and drawn by four horses, twenty cents; for every such carriage having two wheels and drawn by three horses, eighteen cents; for every such carriage having two wheels and drawn by two horses, fourteen cents; for every such carriage having two wheels and drawn by one horse, ten cents; for every chair or other two wheeled carriage of pleasure, for every horse used therein, twelve and an half cents; for every sleigh or sled drawn by four horses, twenty cents; for every sleigh or sled drawn by three horses, eighteen cents; for every sleigh or sled drawn by two horses, sixteen cents; for every sleigh or sled drawn by one horse, ten cents; for every horse, mare or gelding, without a rider, three cents; for every horse, mare or gelding, with a rider, six cents; for every carriage drawn by oxen, or partly by oxen and partly by horses, to be rated in proportion of two oxen for one horse; for every head of horned or muley cattle, two cents; for every head of sheep or swine, one cent. Provided, That any person or persons attending funerals, or any detachment of the military of this state, shall at all times be exempt from paying said toll: And provided further, That when the said tolls shall exceed fifteen per cent nett annual profit, the excess shall compose a fund for the redemption of the bridge so as to render it free, save that there shall always be a small toll or other revenue, for keeping it in repair; this excess shall be laid out in bridge stock, or other productive funds; and the dividends or annual product shall be added to this fund, and all private donations for freeing the bridge shall also be received and invested in like manner: but, if by the operation of the fund herein proposed, there shall be a sufficient sum to free the bridge at a period less than the said forty years, then it shall be redeemed and become free on the stockholders being paid the appraised value thereof, and of the profits thereof for the residue of the said term of forty years, which may be then unexpired; and if the said fund shall not be adequate to the purpose last mentioned, the legislature may, at the expiration of the said forty years, declare it a free bridge (providing at the same time the means of keeping it in repair) and the company shall be obliged to take such sum of money therefor as shall be allowed on a fair appraisement of disinterested persons, to be chosen in such manner as shall be directed by law; the like appraisement shall take place when the sinking fund is adequate to the redemption of the bridge, and the establishment of a revenue, if a toll be no longer thought more eligible for keeping the bridge in repair; but, if the said bridge shall not be redeemed and paid for as a free bridge, before, or at the expiration of the said term of forty years, the said corporation may and shall continue to hold the same, on the terms of this act beyond the said term, and until the same shall be redeemed and paid for in manner as is herein directed.

Sec. 11. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if the said company, their successors or assigns, or any person employed by them, shall collect or demand any greater rate or prices for the passing over the said bridge, than what is herein before prescribed, or shall neglect to keep the said bridge in repair, he or they shall forfeit and pay for every such offence the sum of twenty dollars, to be recovered before any justice of the peace of said county, one half thereof to be paid to the overseers of the poor of the borough of Pittsburgh, for the use of the poor of said borough of Pittsburgh, and the other half to the use of the person who shall sue for the same. Provided always, That no suit shall be brought in this respect, unless within fifteen days, Sundays excepted, after the offence may be committed. And provided also, That the judgment of the said justice, in any such case brought before him, shall be liable to reversal, either by appeal to the court of common pleas of said county, if the merits of the case be contested, or by certiorari, if the legality of his proceedings or of his jurisdiction be disputed.

Sec. 12. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said president, managers and company, shall keep a just account of all monies received by their several collectors, of tolls for crossing the said bridge, and shall declare and make a dividend of the income and profits thereof among all the subscribers to the said company's stock, in proportion to their respective shares, first deducting all contingent costs and charges, and such proportion of the said income as may be deemed necessary for a fund to provide against the decay, the repairing, or the rebuilding of the said bridge, as time and accident may render necessary, and shall on or before the first Monday of July in every year, publish in the public papers of Pittsburgh, Washington, Union town, and Greensburgh, as aforesaid, the dividend to be made of the clear profits arising from the tolls, among the stockholders, and of the time and place when and where the same shall be paid, and cause the same to be paid accordingly.

Sec. 13. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person or person shall wilfully pull down, break or destroy any part or parts of the said bridge, or any toll house, gates, bars or other property of the said corporation appurtenant to or erected for the use and convenience of the said bridge, or the person employed in conducting the business thereof, or shall wilfully and without the consent and orders of the said corporation, or any persons authorised by them, deface or destroy the letters or figures or other characters, in any written or printed list of the rates or tolls affixed in any place or places for the information of passengers and others, or who shall wilfully or maliciously obstruct or impede the passage on or over the said bridge, or any part or parts thereof, he, she or they so offending, shall each of them forfeit and pay for every sush offence, to the said corporation, the sum of twenty dollars, to be sued for and recovered before any justice of the peace as debts of like amount are recoverable, and he, she or they so offending shall remain liable to actions at the suit of the said corporation for such wrongs, if the said sum or sums herein mentioned be not sufficient to repair or satisfy said damages. Provided always, That no suit shall be brought unless within thirty days after such offence shall have been committed, if the offender can so soon be discovered, otherwise within ten days after the president and managers do ascertain the person or persons so offending; provided also, That the judgment of said justice in any case shall be liable to reversal, either by appeal to the court of common pleas of said county, if the merits of the case be contested, or by certiorari, if the legality of his proceedings or his jurisdiction be disputed.

Sec. 14. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said president and managers shall at the end of every third year from the date of their incorporation, until three years next after the said bridge shall be completed, lay before the general assembly of this commonwealth an abstract of their accounts, shewing the whole of the capital expended in the prosecution of the work, and of the income and profits arising from the toll received during such period, together with an exact account of the costs and charges of keeping the said bridge in repair, and all other contingent costs and charges, to the end that the clear annual income and profits thereof may be ascertained and known; and if at the end of three years after the completion of the said bridge, it shall appear from the average profits of the said three years, that the clear income and profits will not bear a dividend of six per cent per annum on the whole capital stock of the said company so expended, then it shall be lawful for the said president, managers and company to increase the tolls herein allowed to be taken so much on each particular item, in proportion, as will raise the dividend to six per cent per annum on the whole capital stock of the said company, and at the end of every ten years after the completion of the said bridge, the said president, managers and company shall render to the general assembly of this commonwealth, a like abstract of their accounts for the three preceding years.

Sec. 15. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if the said company shall not proceed to carry on the said work within the space of three years from the passing of this act, and shall not within the space of fifteen years from the passing thereof complete the said bridge, it shall and may be lawful for the legislature of this commonwealth to resume all and singular the rights and privileges hereby granted to the said company.

FRIDAY, March 30, 1810.

We lay before the public, in this day's Gazette, the law "authorising the Governor to incorporate a company for erecting a bridge over the river Monongahela, opposite Pittsburgh." The legislature have also passed a law for erecting a bridge over the Allegheny river, opposite Pittsburgh. These laws are similar in almost every section; we therefore think it unnecessary to publish the last. It may, however, be proper to mention the commissioners appointed to open the books and receive subscriptions for erecting the Allegheny bridge—They are—John Wilkins, James Robinson, (of Pine) Nathaniel Irish, George Shiras, George Robinson, Isaac Craig, James Irwin, John Johnston, and James Riddle.

NEW-YORK, March 17.

By the U. S. brig Argus, capt. Jones, in 7 days from Charleston, the editors of the New-York Gazette have received the Charleston Times, of the 9th inst. containing London news to the 20th January, received at Amelia by the ship Savannah, 42 days from Liverpool.

The John Adams frigate was windbound in the Downs till the 17th of Jan. when she sailed for Amsterdam.

The London Courier, a ministerial paper, says, America has made haste to arrange her differences with France and a convention between the two powers is said to have been signed on the 5th or 6th of this month, January. Not a syllable of its contents has transpired, but one great point which the American government has always endeavored to gain, has been the abandonment of the right of search by the naval powers of Europe.

FRENCH WAR.

The following and the article from Marblehead, corroborate the late intelligence from Bordeaux and Gijon of a general seizure of our property in France.

Capt. Josiah Pratt, of the brig Pocahontas, of N. York, captured on her voyage from Tonningen, and carried into Bologne, writes to his consignees thus——

"Off the mouth of the English Channel, I was boarded by a privateer, treated politely and suffered to proceed. Soon after, I was boarded by three small French boats, who took the brig into Boulogne, put myself and crew into prison, would not allow me to speak to any one, or to have pen, ink, or paper. After being imprisoned some days, was suffered to proceed to an inland town, where I was permitted to have pen, ink and paper."

This brig was owned commanded, and navigated by native citizens of the U. States. No cause for this outrageous conduct was assigned by the captors.

N. Y. Even. Post.

From MARBLEHEAD, March 3.

Arrived sch'r Endeavor, Powers, in 45 days from Gijon.

She brings the following extract of a letter from Mrs. Obrien, of St. Andero, dated Jan. 5.

"This morning arrived here the American schooner Britannia, captain Bunker, from Salem. The moment she came to anchor general Bonnet sent soldiers on board to take possession of her. The American counsel enquired the cause, was informed by the general that he had EXPRESS ORDERS from the EMPEROR TO SEIZE ALL AMERICAN VESSELS, and to treat their CAPTAINS and CREWS as PRISONERS OF WAR."

BONAPARTE OUR "MEDIATOR:"
OR,
The Protector of the United States!

Napoleon, in his late Expose, after declaring that he has made himself, Mediator, Protector, Lord, and Master, of the United States of America! says

"It was France which established the independence of the U. States of North America; it was she who contributed to add several provinces to them: she will be always ready to defend her work."

Who will now doubt that "NAPOLEON is our KING.

Freeman's Journal.

The frigate President, capt. Bainbridge, while running at the rate of 8 knots an hour, with a pilot on board, struck on a shoal in Hampton Roads. On hearing her signals of distress several vessels came along side and lightened her by taking out a number of her guns and starting her water casks, by which means she was got off next morning. It is supposed she is greatly injured, for after she was off the shoal she continued to fire signals of distress.

THE CELEBRATED IMPORTED HORSE

NORTH STAR,

WILL stand the ensuing season at the Livery stable of the subscriber, in Pittsburgh, from the first of April, until the tenth day of July, and cover mares at ten dollars the season, payable the first day of September next: Six dollars (cash) the single leap; and twenty dollars to insure a colt, to be paid as soon as the mare is known to be with foal; the owner parting with the mare, or removing her, forfeits the insurance money, and in all cases half a dollar to the groom, to be paid when the mare is put to the horse. Any person bringing three mares, and being responsible for the payment, shall have a deduction made on the foregoing prices of twelve and a half per cent. The colts of this horse are so very promising, that they will fully recommend him wherever they are known. He is a beautiful dark bay, rising 13 years, and in size, make, muscle, bone, and correct movement, equal, if not superior, to any horse on the continent of America. He is allowed by the best judges to be better formed for the improvement of the American breed of horses, than any horse ever imported. He is seventeen hands high, elegantly proportioned, of great strength, and moves uncommonly light, and with speed in all his gaits. His sire was sir John Pennyman's renowned horse North Star, who was got by sir William Middleton's Match'em, out of Col. Howe's famous mare Lass of the Mill. The dam of North Star was got by the duke of Grafton's Florezil, out of a Yorkshire mare.

DANIEL BELTZHOOVER.

Pittsburgh, March 1810.

(CERTIFICATES.)

This is to certify that I purchased the horse, North Star, of Mr. Moorcraft, Oxford-street, London, in the summer of the year 1801; that I shipped him with the horse Goldfinger, now at Frederick, in Maryland, on board the ship Juno, capt. Stevens, bound to New-York, where he was landed in November, 1801.—North Star was only four years old when I purchased him.

JOHN COLES.

New-London, (Con.) May 5, 1803.

The subscribers hereby certify, that they have seen several of the North Star's colts, and are of opinion that they are excelled by none in this neighbourhood for muscle, bone and movement. We have known some of them to sell at three years old, for 600 dollars, and 800 has been refused for one of that age.

John Baer, Andw. Graff, Jacob Graff, and Adam Reigart, jun.

March 1, 1806.

I do hereby certify, that John T. Mason, esq. sent two mares last season to North Star, each foaled a horse colt, which in my opinion are not excelled in point of size, figure and form, by any colts of their age on the continent. I have also seen several others of his colts, all of which confirm North Star to be a superior foal getter.

STOMACHIC ELIXIR OF HEALTH;
(Price One Dollar and Fifty Cents.)

Which has proved by thousands, who have experienced its beneficial effects, to be the most valuable medicine ever offered to the public, for speedily relieving and curing the cramp, pains, and wind in the stomach and bowels, carrying off superfluous bile, removing habitual costiveness, sickness at the stomach, severe head ache, etc.

For the dysentery or lax, cholera morbus, severe gripings, and other diseases of the bowels, and the summer bowel complaint in children, it has proved a certain remedy, and restored to perfect health from the greatest debility.

Common coughs and colds, which are generally occasioned by obstructed perspiration, will be found to yield to its benign influence in a few hours.

In asthmatic or consumptive complaints, hoarseness, wheesings, shortness of breath, and the hooping cough, it will give immediate relief.

Dr. Robertson's
[illegible]GETABLE NERVOUS CORDIAL,
OR NATURE'S GRAND RESTORATIVE.
(Price One Dollar and Fifty Cents.)

It is confidently recommended, as the most efficacious medicine, for the speedy relief and cure of all nervous complaints, impurities of the blood, seminal weaknesses, and various complaints resulting from dissipated pleasures, residence in warm climates, the immoderate use of tea, the unskilfull or excessive use of mercury, and diseases peculiar to females at a certain period of life.

Under the denomination of nervous disorders, in its full extent, are included several diseases of the most dangerous kind, and are so various that a volume would hardly suffice to complete a description of them. It pervades with its baleful influence the whole nervous system, writhing the heart with inexpressible anguish, and exciting the most dreadful suggestions of horror and despair. To this demon have thousands fallen a sacrifice, in the direful transports of its rage.

The most common symptoms at its commencement, are weakness, flatulence, palpitations, watchfulness, drowsiness after eating, timidity, flashes of heat and cold, numbness, cramp, giddiness, pains in the head, back, and loins, hickup, difficulty of respiration and deglutition, anxiety, dry cough, etc.

Since doctor Robertson's first discovery of this invaluable medicine, upwards of two hundred thousand persons have experienced its happy and salutary effects, many of whom had been reduced to the last stage, and given up all hopes of recovering.

PATENT
STOMACHIC WINE BITTERS.

These celebrated and well known Bitters, are composed purely of vegetables of the most innocent yet specific virtues, and are particularly recommended for restoring weak constitutions, cleansing and strengthening the stomach, and increasing the appetite; they expel worms in all ages, but from their simplicity and safety, are a most natural and effectual vermifuge, when administered to children; they are gratefully warm, and pungently aromatic; they are extremely serviceable in all seasons, but particularly so on the approach of warm weather, when bilious habits experience such total loss of appetite; they are also a certain preventative against those complaints so common in the spring and fall seasons, such as intermittent fevers and agues, long autumnal fevers, dysenteries, etc.

Dr. Robertson's

CERTIFICATE

Of the Rev. Dr. Jones, pastor of the Baptist Church, and late chaplain to gen. Wayne.

Chester county, July 21, 1809.

SIR—you may be surprised at my delay in giving a certificate of the great efficacy of Dr. Robertson's Stomachic Elixir of Health. The chief reason of the delay, was to have more opportunities of its efficacy. I will state my own case:—In April 1807, I was seized with a violent influenza which baffled all medicines I could think of, I bled largely, but found no relief, at last I purchased a bottle of the Elixer, it relieved me very much, and another bottle completely cured me; I then recommended it to others, troubled with coughs, and I do not remember one instance, in which it has failed; I think it my duty to recommend it to the citizens of the United States, as the best medicine that ever came under my notice.

DAVID JONES.
Dr. T. W. Dyott, Philadelphia.

Extract of a letter from the Rev. Wm. Ayres, late rector of St. George's Paris, Accomac, Virginia.

Philadelphia, Aug. 7th, 1809.

Dear Sir—Providentially I have taken dr. Robertson's Vegetable Nervious Cordial, or Nature's Grand Restorative, a sufficient time to find relief in a nervous disease; I have since recommended your medicines to several of my acquaintance who have been much relieved by them; I shall endeavor to introduce them into all the families which I am acquainted: I believe them to be good: and I sm satisfied, after their first trial, they will never be laid aside for any other medicine.

WM. AYRES,
No. 112, north Fifth street.
Dr. T. W. Dyott.

Extract of a letter from the Rev. Dr. HAMILTON.

I have been for six years past afflicted with the rheumatism in my neck and shoulders; at times the pain was so excruciating as to prevent me lying down in bed. After having every advice, without finding any relief, I was advised to make a trial of doct. Robertson's Gout and rheumatic drops, which I declare have entirely removed the pain, and I now enjoy better health than I have done for a number of years.

It is six months since I had any rheumatic pain. I have recommended the above drops to some of my friends, who have been greatly relieved by them.

(Signed) G. HAMILTON, D. D.

FROM BALTIMORE.
To Dr. Dyott, Philadelphia.

SIR—I am happy to have it my power to procure you a certificate of the good effects produced by DR. Robertson's Stomachic Elixir of Health, in the case of Mr. Davis, of which is the following, viz.

Extract of a letter from Mr. Lewis Davis.

Baltimore, June 17th 1809.

SIR—I was afflicted with a cough, pain in my side and breast, for upwards of five months which rendered me scarcely capable of transacting my business—when, fortunately, I saw an advertisement of DR. Robertson's celebrated Stomachic Elixer of Health, I purchased a bottle at your store, in order to give it a trial, and to my great consolation found my cough abate; pains in my side and limbs entirely gone, and my breast freed from an obstruction that prevented my expanding my lungs, so that I could not fetch full breath. Upwards of three months have elapsed, and no return of any of the above complaints, and thank God, am now as well as ever I was in my life. You are at liberty to make what use you please of this letter, for the benefit of the public.

I am sir, your most obedient, &c.

MILLS FOR SALE.

THE subscriber offers for Sale the following property, adjoining the town of Canonsburgh, Washington county, viz. Fifty Acres of Land, more or less, well watered, chiefly first and second bottom, through which passes a branch of Big Chartiers, on which is erected a FULLING MILL, now in complete operation, the house of which is of good square logs; also, an OIL MILL and GRIST MILL, contained in one large and commodious stone building lately erected. All the apparatus in hese mills is now in complete repair, and business is carried on in their several branches.

This stream is well known to be among the best in the western country for steadiness of water. The fall on which the mills are erected exceeds sixteen feet; and the situation is such, that another mill may be erected on said land, to be turned by the same water, without the expence of a second dam. There is also an eligible situation for a Tan-yard and Still-house, with the best of water for that purpose. There are also on the said land, two dwelling houses, commodiously planned and in good repair, with out-houses, and a good orchard of bearing apple trees.

The above Property will be offered for Sale by Public Vendue, on the premises, on the last Monday (the 26th) of March next, at which time and place the terms of Sale will be made known, and if sold, immediate possession given, by

WILLIAM M'MILLAN.
